

LOCAL NEWS.

AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT.

FORD'S THEATRE.—Mr. J. S. Clarke, the popular comedian upon the second occasion of his appearance at Ford's will appear again as "Dumbie in the Chair" in the comedy "Comedy of Errors," and as "Cousin Joe" in "Our Country Cousin." Miss Alice Gray and others will support Mr. Clarke.

GROVER'S THEATRE.—Rossini's grand opera "The Barber of Seville" is presented to-night, this being the occasion of Theobald's benefit. The opera will be given as "Count Almaviva," and Hermanns as "Basilio," (first time in ten years) and the cast is otherwise unchanged.

CANVASSERS.—A splendid bill of song and Ethiopian eccentricity to-night again; all of the company, including Marietta Ravel, John Mulligan, Billy West, and others.

FAIRS AND FESTIVALS.—The ladies of West Washington Mission commenced a Festival to-night at the Chaney corner of 11th and R streets. The fair will continue throughout the week.

At Union Leas, on 5th street, the ladies of the 9th ward M. P. Church commenced a Festival to-night, which will be one of the most delightful of the season, judging from the names of the ladies concerned.

The ladies of East Washington M. E. Church held a Festival at Anacostia Engine House, commencing to-night.

At St. Paul's English Lutheran Church, corner of 11th and H streets, a fair also commences to-night, for the benefit of the Sunday School and the Church.

The ladies of Capitol Hill Presbyterian Church continue their Fair at Odd Fellows' Hall, 7th street.

At Island Hall the delightful Ladies' Fair of the 7th Presbyterian Church is still in progress.

THE ELECTION YESTERDAY.—Richard Wallace is re-elected Mayor of Washington by a large majority, and the candidates for the City Councils and for Assessors on the Wallace ticket have with few exceptions been elected.

The election passed off very quietly, excellent order having been maintained throughout the city, partly from the fact that the military authorities closed all saloons, and the liquor was to be obtained, but especially from the vigilance of the Metropolitan Police, who were out in full force, exerting an influence of order and decorum in every ward of the city.

There were certainly fewer arrests yesterday from drunkenness and disorderly conduct than has been the case for years past on election days.

Throughout the day the contest was conducted with animation on both sides, though with commendable good feeling between the partisans of the respective candidates for the mayoralty, both being admitted to be estimable men, and both well fitted to grace the position in question.

The statement published in the second edition of the Star yesterday afternoon afforded a correct idea of the way in which the election was conducted throughout the city, as the result fully established.

According to custom the people began to gather at the City Hall in the evening to hear the returns. The first attention was directed to the fact that Mr. Wallace had carried the first precinct of the Fourth Ward by 113 majority, and it created some enthusiasm. In a few moments word arrived from the Seventh Ward that Mr. Wallace had carried that ward, which looked like a sociological victory to the Wallace men. Subsequently came another report, reducing the majority in that ward to 10 for Mr. Semmes, and it afterwards was found that 400 votes, or more, had been cast for the Fifth Ward, that Wallace had there received a majority of 210 or 300 votes. This created enthusiasm and cheers for Wallace.

A few moments after Mr. Wallace's name was called on horseback and announced that Wallace had received a majority of 216 in the Sixth Ward. This announcement renewed the enthusiasm of the Wallace side, and shortly after the names of the First and Second Wards, which placed Mr. Wallace's election by a large majority beyond a doubt, and then the cheering on the part of Mr. Wallace's supporters became more and more enthusiastic, and moved over to the Mayor's residence on Louisiana avenue, and a large number of friends entered and congratulated him upon the victory his faithful office and his popularity as evidenced by the cheering.

Mr. Wallace, who had been in the city for some time, and had eventually appeared and addressed the assembled multitude as follows:

My friends: and if ever a man had a right to address a multitude as his friends, I feel that I have that right now. (Cheers, and cries of "That's so," "We are your friends," &c.) If ever I felt grateful to you it is at the present moment. This is not the first time that you have met in this vicinity to congratulate me on my success. (Voice, "And it will not be the last either.") The compliment of the people of this city, and the attention and respect by this reputation, and to say that I feel grateful for it on the present occasion would, indeed, be faint thanks to you for the compliment you have so graciously paid me. (Cheers and applause.) When I look back on the past, I feel that I have many of whom I know in my boyhood—I feel that I still hold the respect of my fellow-citizens. (Voices, "Indeed you do.") I feel that I have many of whom I know in my boyhood—I feel that I still hold the respect of my fellow-citizens. (Voices, "Indeed you do.")

As ever, before, you have embraced the earliest opportunity to do me honor, and that I am proud of the honor none will gainsay. The same spirit which moved you in bygone years has moved you in the present occasion, and by this reputation, and to say that I feel grateful for it on the present occasion would, indeed, be faint thanks to you for the compliment you have so graciously paid me. Dr. Lighthill's Fourth visit to Washington.

DEAFNESS, CATARRH, and diseases of the EAR, THROAT, AND AIR PASSAGES.

Dr. LIGHTHILL, from 34 St. Mark Place, New York, Author of "A Popular Treatise on Deafness, 'Letters on Catarrh,' Will be in WASHINGTON, On MONDAY, June 6th, and can be consulted at the Ebbitt House for ONE WEEK until Saturday evening, June 11th.

DEAFNESS, CATARRH, and all the various diseases of the EAR, THROAT, AND AIR PASSAGES.

Testimonials. WASHINGTON, D. C., March 5, 1884. Dr. Lighthill:—Dear Sir: I take this opportunity to publicly express my gratitude for the wonderful cure of deafness you have in so short a time effected in my case.

I was deaf for about six years, and for the last few years so much so that I could not hear preaching or common conversation; but now since your invaluable services have been rendered, I can hear as well as ever.

In conclusion, let me say that the noises with which I have been troubled in my head for years, have also disappeared.

Very truly yours, JAMES R. MCCUTCHAN, 10th street, between E and F.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 4, 1884. This is to certify, that having been deaf since the year 1858, and since that time gradually losing my hearing until I was unable to hear common conversation or public speaking, I applied to Dr. Lighthill, of New York, who, after a short and painless course of treatment, entirely restored my hearing. I heartily recommend Dr. Lighthill to the deaf.

FREDERICK ROBERTSON, Residence near Fort Saratoga.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2, 1884. This is to certify that having been affected for twenty years with deafness, and having tried some of the most eminent doctors of our city without any relief, I at last heard of Dr. Lighthill and put myself under his care. His treatment was brief, and successful. I am now completely restored, and the cure is apparently permanent. I have all confidence in Dr. Lighthill's skill, and would advise all afflicted with deafness to go and consult him at once.

JOSEPH WHITNEY, Residence near P and 14th streets.

Remarkable Cure of Deafness. From the Rev. Joseph M. Clarke, Rector of St. James' Church.

SYRACUSE, February 20, 1884. I have been deaf in one ear, ever since I was in college, some twenty years ago. By the skill of Dr. Lighthill, his hearing was entirely restored, so that now I hear alike with both ears, and I find that I can use my voice with much more ease and comfort than before.

JOSEPH M. CLARKE, my 32-e20w
